Alderman Abbott Wants a Branch Line Out to the Maury Cemetery.

JUNIORS' RECEPTION TO-NIGHT

Two Funerals This Afternoon. Choir Entertained—Clear Water, Good Streets.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, Nov. 17, 1903. Alderman Abbott will push his scheme for a branch line of the Passenger and Power Company to the Cemetery. Such a line, Mr. Abbott believes, will be of much benefit to many citizens living in that section of the city, and there is a general cry for such a branch line. Many people living in that section are employed in Richmond, and have a long distance to walk. They would be glad to see a spur track run out their way and it is Mr. Abbott's desire to see that these gentlemen get what they want.

FUNERAL TO-DAY. The funeral of Miss Kate Higgins will be this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the home, No. 15 East Third Street, and the burial will be in Maury Cemetery. Miss Higgins died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, in her fifteenth year. She was a beloved girl by many persons and her death is sincerely regretted. The remains of Mr. John W. Fifth will be buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Second Branch's Church, Chesterfield county. He died at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, in his seventy-sixth year, and leaves three sons and one daughter.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS. The appropriation made to the Street Committee in the last budget has been expended, and the result has been of much benefit to the city. Semmes Street, Corwardin Avenue, Bainbridge Street and other streets have been improved to a great extent, and next year the committee hopes to extend its improvements by larger appropriations.

The citizens themselves, next to clear water, hope to see the streets brought up to a metropolitan standard.

CLEAR WATER. The Clear Water Commission will meet in a few days and try to get together on some plan by which the city may secure clear water. They feel that it is due to the citizens to give them clear water.

CHOIR ENTERTAINED. Mr. R. C. Broadbent entertained the choir of Bainbridge Street Church last night at his residence, and a very pleasant evening was spent. Refreshments were served, and the choir sang several selections in their well known way.

PERSONAL AND NOTES. Mrs. Anna Driscoll has returned from Danville. The monthly meeting of the Little Workers' Society of Stockton Street Church will be held next Sunday. Tom Scott was fined $5 and given sixty days for beating his wife by Mayor Maurice yesterday.

Willie Darling and Floyd Robinson were fined $5 for beating Melvin Robinson, and the latter was fined $5 for contempt of court.

ON ASTRONOMY. Interesting Address of Prof. Winston Before Albemarle Club.

Professor Charles H. Winston, of the Richmond College chair of physics, by invitation of the Albemarle Club, last night gave a lecture before that body on astronomy, illustrating it with the aid of the blackboard and charts showing the relative sizes of the planets. Naturally, in a brief discussion of so large a science, the speaker could not attempt any elaborate or exhaustive review of his theme. Instead he discussed the solar system and the relation of the sun and planets, constituting it. The relative location of the planets, the distances of these bodies from the sun and from each other and the inconceivable distances of the fixed stars were treated in a simple and clear manner. A clear idea of the relative dimensions of the planets and the sun could hardly have been given. The immensity of space and the limitless distances in the solar system were reduced to a scale which enabled the audience to form a conception of the smallness of the earth, of a State and a city and of an individual, relatively, which was well calculated to take the conceit out of any man.

The address was followed closely by an intelligent and appreciative audience, and many present manifested their interest in the theme by asking questions as to various phases of the subject, the location of the planets in the heavens and how to find them.

A THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR STUART MONUMENT

A well known Virginia gentleman has written to Secretary V. Ben Palmer, of the Veterans Cavalry Association, that he wishes to give $1,000 towards honoring the memory of one of the men who gave his life in the defense of Richmond during an hour of peculiar peril.

The Executive Committee of the Association met last night, Captain Dimmock presiding. Secretary Palmer announced the good news, which greatly encouraged those who are working for the monument to the honor of one of the purest men that ever lived and one of the greatest soldiers. The gift is the largest yet received from an individual.

PRESENT DIRECTORS ARE ALL RE-ELECTED

(By Associated Press.) BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 16.—The seventy-seventh annual meeting of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was held today, and the present Board of Directors were re-elected as follows: Edward H. Bacon, John K. Cowen, John P. Green, Edward H. Harriman, James McCrea, S. M. Provost, Samuel Rea, Norman B. Ream, Jacob H. Schiff, James Speyer, Charles Steele and James Stillman.

WENT SIX ROUNDS. (By Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 16.—Marvin Hart and Joe Choynski went six rounds to a draw at the Washington Sporting Club to-night. The bout was a fast one, both men taking severe punishment, and both were bleeding freely at the close.

Campbell's Completed. Contractors John Drever and Company yesterday turned over to Mr. John M. Campbell, all ready for use, the annex to his hotel, and now that hostelry has a capacity for fifty guests.

Mr. Campbell put out about $12,000.

Decision Handed Down. (By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., November 16.—Justice Day, of the United States Supreme Court, today delivered the opinion of the court in the case of Comptroller Adams, of the State of Tennessee, vs. the Pullman Palace Car Company. The case pertained to the Tennessee State laws of 1887 and 1889, providing for the taxation of sleeping car companies doing business in the State. The court upheld the validity of the law of 1889, taxing companies for the passengers carried solely within the State limits, and the law of 1887, taxing the cars operated within the State, was held to be a burden in interstate commerce, and therefore unconstitutional.

FEAST OF MACHINISTS

The Fifteenth Anniversary of Union No. 10 Celebrated Last Night.

A MOST DELICIOUS SPREAD

Machinists Union No. 10 last night celebrated its fifteenth anniversary with a banquet and some very happy speeches in the elegant dining-room of The Powhatan. The organization is now in a most prosperous and flourishing condition, having a membership of about 270, and is in excellent financial condition. There was a fine turnout of the membership at the anniversary celebration last night, fully 175 persons being seated around the long and prettily-decorated table. The toastmaster's table was at the south end of the dining-room with three long tables running at right angles to it. Over the speaker's table was a banner bearing in large letters the one word "Welcome". In the north end of the room Thilo's orchestra was stationed and played a select programme, while the diners were discussing the elegant and varied menu spread before them.

EXCELLENT MENU.

The menu embraced fried oysters, claret punch, olives, celery, mixed pickles, broiled trout, escalloped oysters, stuffed turkey, cranberry sauce, chicken salad, potato salad, cold ham, cold tongue, ice-cream, assorted cakes, fruits, coffee, Anchor-Bush beer and cigar.

The musical programme, "The Uncle Sammy, two-step; Fair Maiden of Seville, selection from Faust; Intermezzo Anona, Under the Bamboo Tree, selection from the Singing Girl; Mr. Dooley, Dance of the Sparrows, Tossie, You're the Only, Only; Arrival of the Greeks, The Dancin' Intermezzo, The Jolly General March and finally, Hiawatha.

President J. B. Hurley was toastmaster and in very felicitous style, introduced the speakers. The first called upon was Mr. A. B. Tyson, a veteran of No. 10, and one who had always taken an active part in the work of the organization. He briefly reviewed the history of the growth of No. 10, and his long connection with it. He hardly knew what his father's religion or his politics were, he said, but he knew that he was a trades unionist and that the speaker was one by birth. True trades unionism, he said, was a religion and good enough for him. If any lived up to principles he needed have no fear as to the future. The speaker was warmly applauded.

WELTHY FOR AWHILE. Mr. William Shepherd, another veteran in the cause, was next called upon and was received with great enthusiasm as he came to the front. He was not a Chauncey Dewey, he said, and hence could not be expected to make a great after-dinner speech. If any one had entered the hall half an hour before, said the speaker, he would have found a most delicious spread.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, November 16.—Cornelius Williams, the negro who shot and killed Andrew H. Green on Friday last, was indicted today for murder in the first degree, and will plead to the indictment to-morrow.

GRACEFUL TRIBUTE

The principal event of the evening was the graceful tribute to Governor MacCorkle, which was delivered by Mr. MacCorkle, in an eloquent tone and manner he recited the praises of the host, and told in what high esteem he was held in the Commonwealth of West Virginia.

Mr. James B. Doherty was next presented as an old trades unionist in the past and in the present, and now holding the position of Commissioner of Labor. Mr. Doherty, in his usual easy, graceful style, acknowledged the honor done him and responded briefly, advocating union of the unions, and he preached the gospel of unionism which required the patronizing of those manufacturers who made garments stamped with the union label.

Mr. Doherty congratulated the union on its anniversary under auspicious conditions.

Toastmaster Hurley then introduced as a man who had labored in the cause of trades unionism, and been as much "cussed" and "discussed" as any man in the cause—Mr. W. H. Mullen. Mr. Mullen was in fine voice and could be heard distinctly in every part of the hall, even with the buzz of conversation, which made the words of some of the speakers almost inaudible. In all his long experience, said Mr. Mullen, he had never met such a gathering of a single trade in the southland as he saw before him. He congratulated the union upon its growth and the achievements of organization.

His address closed the programme of the anniversary celebration.

THE PANAMA MATTER.

Papers Transmitted to House by President.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—President Roosevelt today transmitted to the House of Representatives the correspondence and other official documents relating to the recent revolution on the Isthmus of Panama as requested by a House resolution. The papers embrace much that has been made public. The following order was called to the commander of the Nashville at Colon, under date of November 24:

"Maintain free and uninterrupted transit. If interruption is threatened by armed force, or by the line of railroad, or by the landing of any armed force with hostile intent, either government or insurgent either at Colon, Porto Bello or other point."

Similar orders were sent to the commanders of the Boston and Dixie and to Rear-Admiral Glass.

On November 14th, Acting Secretary Dingle sent this dispatch to the commander of the Nashville:

"Gunboat of Colombia shelling Panama. Send immediately battery of 3-inch field guns and 6-pounder, with force of men to Panama to compel cessation host by the Colombian must furnish transportation immediately."

ELOQUENT VIRGINIAN

Governor MacCorkle Pays Tribute to a Pennsylvanian Who Was Merciful.

VALLEY WAS HIS BIRTHPLACE

He Tells of Its Glories With Words Which Ripple With Music as the Shenandoah.

That the people of the Southland have a high regard for and appreciation of one of Pittsburgh's leading citizens—Colonel J. M. Schoonmaker—was demonstrated in no uncertain manner in this city on Friday evening, says the Pittsburgh Leader. A few weeks ago Colonel Schoonmaker, with a party of friends from the North, spent some time in West Virginia looking over the old battlefields and touring other places that brought their memories of the days of the civil war when Colonel Schoonmaker was in command of the Fourteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry. Prior to their return home, the party was entertained at the hospitable home of former Governor W. A. MacCorkle, of West Virginia. It was a pleasant function, and while there the wearers of the Blue and Gray mingled together in fraternal spirit and recall the anxious, exciting days.

When the time came for them to separate it was plainly apparent that a strong bond of sympathy had sprung up and existed between the entertainers and the entertained. A few days ago George W. Stevens, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad and former Governor MacCorkle were in Pittsburgh on business, and on Friday evening they were at the home of Colonel Schoonmaker, at his guests. On Bowers Avenue, a few personal friends of the host gathered there, and a most pleasant time was spent. A few impromptu speeches were made which were in keeping with the occasion.
